PROFILE

I describe myself as a tranquil person who likes art and is passionate about storytelling. I enjoy reading and the process of learning about different subjects. I also consider myself an active person and participate in different sports and physical activities.

At the moment I work as a Director and videographer at Casa Ajena, a growing company I founded in 2018. I specialize in directing, camera operation, lighting and editing while also managing a small multimedia crew through various client-oriented projects.
